

Workshop: Strong reciprocity and welfare (program)

Location: University of Konstanz (Germany)

Date: October 6+7, 2023

Organization: Tobias Henschen (Cologne)

Funding: German Research Foundation (DFG)

October 6 (Friday), P0712 (Universität Konstanz, Universitätsstraße 10, 78464 Konstanz)

09:15-09:30 Opening

09:30-10:45 Antoinette Baujard (Saint-Étienne): Thinking differently about public action. The promising potential of Sen's idea of justice

11:00-12:15 Maj-Britt Sterba (Konstanz): Fairness Preferences and Support for Welfare Policies

12:15-13:30 Lunch (P0712)

13:30-14:45 Tobias Henschen (Cologne): Strong reciprocity and welfare non-consequentialism

15:00-16:15 Michiru Nagatsu (Helsinki): (How) should behavioral policy and economic engineering exploit strong reciprocity? A virtue ethics approach

16:30-17:45 Adam Oliver (London): Desert, Reciprocity and 'Das Adam Smith Problem'

19:00 Dinner: Constanzer Wirtshaus (Spanierstraße 3, 78467 Konstanz)

October 7 (Saturday), Bischofsvilla (Otto-Adam-Straße 5, 78467 Konstanz)

09:30-10:45 Maria Bigoni (Bologna): The Importance of Being Even: Restitution in the Repeated Prisoner's Dilemma

11:00-12:15 Urs Fischbacher (Konstanz): Rights, Duties, and Taboos: The Social Codex of Peer Punishment

12:15-13:30 Lunch (Bischofsvilla)

13:30-14:45 Julian Reiss (Linz): Three arguments against paternalism

15:00-16:15 Sean P. Hargreaves Heap (London): The case for constitutional welfare economics and a Millian illustration

16:30-17:45 Robert Sugden (East Anglia): Why psychological game theory is not a theory of welfare

19:00 Dinner: Café Wessenberg (Wessenbergstraße 41, 78462 Konstanz)